

FOXCONN IN RACINE COUNTY: 2019 IN REVIEW

Throughout 2019, progress continued on Foxconn Technology Group's Village of Mount Pleasant development, including an additional $196 million in construction contracts awarded to companies from across the state of Wisconsin and bringing the company's total project expenditures to $370 million.

January 2019

Foxconn Released 2018 Wisconsin Project Highlights Including Creation of Over 1,000 Jobs

February 2019

Foxconn and UW-Milwaukee Hosted Send-Off for Students Embarking on International Engineering Co-op

Foxconn Received Golden Shovel Award for Support of Diverse Wisconsin Businesses

March 2019

Foxconn Awarded $34 Million in Contracts to Wisconsin-based Businesses for Work on Advanced Manufacturing Campus

Foxconn Broke Ground on Advanced Manufacturing Campus

Phase of Wisconsin Valley Science & Technology Park

April 2019

Foxconn Commenced Gen6 Advanced Manufacturing Recruitment Drive

Foxconn Announced Final Round Winners of the "Smart Cities-Smart Futures" Competition

May 2019

Foxconn Announced Awards for Construction of Foundation of Advanced Manufacturing Facility

June 2019

Foxconn Began Concrete Foundation Pour for Advanced Manufacturing Facility

July 2019

Foxconn Announced Construction Awards Exceeding $15 Million for Work on Power Substation, Issued New Invitations to Bid on Work Associated with Advanced Manufacturing Facility

August 2019

Foxconn Began Vertical Construction for Advanced Manufacturing Facility

September 2019

Foxconn Selected Motenson as Construction Manager for Smart Manufacturing Center and High-Performance Computing Data Center

Foxconn Kicked Off Year Two of the "Smart Cities-Smart Futures" Competition

October 2019

Foxconn Launched "Earn and Learn" Talent Development Programs for Technical College and University Students in Wisconsin

Foxconn Began Roof Installation for Advanced Manufacturing Facility

Foxconn Announced $83 Million in Additional Construction Awards for Additional Work on the Advanced Manufacturing Facility

November 2019

Foxconn Announced First-Round Finalists of the Year-Two "Smart Cities - Smart Futures" Competition

December 2019

Area Firms Awarded Additional Construction Awards Totaling $20 Million for Work on Smart Manufacturing Center

Foxconn Announced $31 Million in Additional Construction Awards for Ongoing Work on Advanced Manufacturing Facility

Foxconn Became Largest Taxpayer in Mount Pleasant

In addition to Foxconn's progress, numerous additional companies and organizations continued local developments over the course of the year. These ancillary developments brought an estimated $269 million in investment to Racine County.