

► Summer Concert Line-up Announced

Mount Pleasant's free concert series at Campus Park returns this summer with four new bands and a rotating fleet of food trucks. The concert series debuted last year, and is renamed Sounds at Sunset for 2025. Local blues prodigies Stephen Hull Experience headline the opening show on June 17. The LoveMonkeys take the stage July 8, followed by The Voice contestant Betsy Ade & the Well-Known Strangers on July 29. Dancing Queen: An ABBA Salute closes out the series on August 19. All shows begin at 6:30 p.m. at Campus Park, located at 8500 Campus Drive in Mount Pleasant.

► Neighborhood Parks Plans Advance

The Plan Commission endorsed ideas to enhance Dirkse, Drozd, James Turek and Pheasant Creek parks with paved paths, playgrounds, shelters, picnic tables and native plants, reflecting public input from neighbors. Once finalized, the plans will guide future park improvement funding and grant requests. See concepts presented to the Plan Commission.

► Bike Plan Open House

Help improve Mount Pleasant streets and trails for bicyclists and pedestrians. Planners will share findings and hear your ideas for the future at the 2030 Bicycle Master Plan open house in Village Hall from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, May 7.

Microsoft is hosting a Community Impact and Resource Fair with local nonprofit groups from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 31, at the Racine Campus of Gateway Technical College to discuss job training programs and other Racine County initiatives.

► Splash Pad Reopening Set

Campus Park's splash pad reopens on Saturday, May 24. Crews will soon reinstall its green spray ring and rinse station, and wake up the water jets after a winter hibernation.

