

► Village Maps Future with New Strategic Plan

Yogi Berra once warned: “If you don't know where you are going, you'll end up someplace else.” Mount Pleasant set its destination when the Village Board recently adopted a 2030 Strategic Plan with a vision “To be the Midwest’s most welcoming, forward-thinking, and dynamic community to call home.” The path to get there includes being proactive about public safety, strengthening customer service in Village government, and improving daily life through parks and local cultural events, for example. Expect to hear more about this plan as it’s put into action over the next five years.

► Summer Parks Programs Kicking Off

Enrollment is still open for Mount Pleasant Parks’ summer Playground Programs, and kickball and volleyball leagues. Starting in June, they offer an affordable, safe, and fun way for kids to go outside and exercise. T-ball and coach pitch softball league enrollment just closed with almost 250 participants, compared with just over 200 last year. Sign up today.

► Village Hall Summer Hours

From Memorial Day through Labor Day, Mount Pleasant Village Hall will close at 1:00 p.m. on Fridays. Regular hours will remain in effect Monday through Thursday. Please plan accordingly for in-person visits.

The public is invited to review and provide feedback on conceptual plans to improve four neighborhood parks during a public Open House scheduled on Wednesday, June 4, from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., in Mount Pleasant Village Hall, 8811 Campus Drive.

► John McGivern Show Drops By

Six-time Emmy award-winning actor and host John McGivern explored several spots in Mount Pleasant this week for the next season of his Main Streets show.

